ANNOUNCEMENTS

Congratulations to all who helped on the 4th of July parade. We were granted the Grand Marshal's award.

Pier Festival: the committee is working hard to get vendors and sponsors for this annual event. The festival is free admission— which means we do NOT have to sell any tickets! If you can contribute as a sponsor ($50), see Jack Moran today. You'll be recognized in the printed program handed out at the event. We also need workers from 6:30 a.m. thru 10:30 p.m. See Donna Miller to sign up for your two hour stint.

Camp Onseyawa: Camp is fast approaching and help is needed for Carnival (August 22nd) and August 28th (tear-down). See Joe Kardesh to sign up.

Dues: Annual dues need to be paid by the end of July. Turn your check in to Secretary Michelle Garlock now.

Club received a Thank You note from Barb Wolfe, our pianist.

Birthdays and Anniversaries for July were announced. Those in attendance paid a small fine. Best wishes for another great year!

Exchange Students: Our outbound summer student, Christina Nevin, has arrived in Switzerland. We are still in need of a Host Family for Julian, our inbound young man from Germany. He is arriving in early August, as he'll be playing soccer. If you know of anyone who might be able to host Julian, see Judy Bennett now.

Fines

Bill Hallett is proud of his grandson from Liverpool, NY who made the National Lacrosse All Star Team, Ken Poole is proud of his son who got his Architectural License, Peter Heinrich pulled out the Pit Pass to pay for his two week vacation in Canada. President Linda auctioned off the Pit Passes to Bruce Kennedy ($22) and Ken Poole ($21).

Foundation

The Rotary International Foundation helps people world-wide with the Matching Grants program. Recent projects that our members have contributed to include: solar ovens for Nicaragua, Water Tank for School in Africa, Scholarships for Malawi Children, Polio Plus, and Water Drilling Equipment for the Lost Boys of Sudan.

Help out with future projects by contributing to the RI Foundation today.

Program

Assistant Governor Lisa Ventura Stanton was introduced by Greg Gullo. Lisa is a Past President of the Geneva Rotary Club. She has worked for Finger Lakes Health for 28 years. Lisa is our liaison to the District Governor. She complimented the club on our website and membership growth – “Both are impressive.” She also noted that we are very strong in the Youth Exchange program.

50/50: Ben Gullo won $16 and Mark Vahey pulled the King of Diamonds. The Joker jackpot is at $215.00.
